

Day of introduction

HANG-, PARA- OG SPEEDGLIDING

Introduction to: Hanggliding Paragliding Speedgliding

Disclaimer for day of introduction to Hang-, Para- or Speedgliding

1. Information

On a day of introduction, you will be given the possibility to try out hang-, para- or speedgliding under supervision. We will walk you through basic start- and landing techniques in theory and practice and most will during their attempts experience being lifted off the ground for the first time. For your own safety it's important to use a helmet, gloves and supportive boots.

This opportunity will give you the possibility to decide whether flying is something you would like to continue doing.

Good luck

2. Declaration

I understand and acknowledge that these activities have inherent dangers that no amount of care, caution, instruction, or expertise can eliminate and I expressly voluntarily assume a risk of death or personal injury sustained by participating in these activities. I am aware that many life- and accident insurances do not cover injuries sustained through hang-, para- or speedgliding activities.

I have informed those responsible for the day of introduction of any illness I have which may affect the activity including, but not limited to, diabetes, epilepsy, heart disease etc.

I hereby release and discharge the instructor and NLF/HPS (including NLF's associated clubs) or any of NLF's (including NLF's associated clubs') officers, directors and members from any and all liability, claims, demands or causes of action that I hereafter may have for injuries, damages or death arising out of my participation on the day of introduction.

I further declare and agree, with effect also for my heirs/relatives, that I will not sue or make claim against NLF/HPS (including NLF's associated clubs) or any of NLF's (including NLF's associated clubs') officers, directors and members for damages or other losses sustained as a result of my participation on the day of introduction.

I have read this form and release of liability and I fully understand its contents and meaning, and sign it of my own free will.
